

CHS Alumni

Minutes for August 20th

The CHS Alumni Association met Sunday, August 20th with 12 members and 3 guests present.

President Peggy Bailey called the meeting to order.

The minutes were read and approved.

The treasurers report is as follows; Deposit of $1220.00, checks written for stamps $66.00, reimbursed Frances Smith $25.00 for dues paid twice. The balance to date is $4120.92, and we have 191 members.

Olivia reported on the articles about the history of Carlisle schools that will run in the Carlisle Independent in September.

The bank, Bancorp South, will host the reception following the parade, and the 5K run at 8am on Saturday.

Bison Burger will sell coffee and donuts at the park from 8am to 10am.

The Altruistic Club was represented by Cindy Bowan, Frankie Dunn and Jane Trimble. The club will sell hot dogs and hamburgers on Saturday. It was brought up that a school club or class might like to sell drinks and popcorn to raise money and someone will check with them.

Bob suggested the idea of having a float in the parade be changed to antique cars with some Alumni riding in them.

Discussion was held on renting two 15x15 tents at a cost of $268.56. Bob will contact the city and see if they have access to any and if we could use them.

The entertainment for the event is coming together and the sound system was discussed. It was decided that we should plan to use the sound system that belongs to the city.

Coke will provide four banners and the art department at school will do the lettering.

Roger Williams has a web site that is open to anyone who will send in names of their classmates. He will post them in the year they graduated, along with the class motto, song and flower. He has listed the Alumni information and will pass along newsletters as he gets them.

The next meeting will be September ^{17th} ~~16th~~. The meeting was adjourned.
